HAWAII THEATRE TO SHOW CIVIL WAR SCENE

A civil war picture of fifty years ago will be retold in photo-play at the Hawaii theater when the siege of Petersburg, a two-reel film, the production of the Kalem company, will be shown.

The film will be shown for four nights, during which time the local G. A. R. will be the guests of the management. All that is necessary is to show the G. A. R. insignia and the veterans can see the battle that helped to cement the United States under one flag, in which they figured matterially.

Over 2000 people figure in the production of the film, which will give an idea of the expense the film-makers went to to get the picture historically correct.

The other films will include a rattling comedy entitled "All Is Fair," and an Espany western feature "Broncho Billy's Last Hold Up." Despite the added expense of the feature picture, the same prices will prevail.

The world's motorcycle champion, ed the following racer, John Albright, to swerve. The latter was also killed.

REUNION OF OLD-TIMERS

A reunion of many old timers in local police annals was a feature of the "Monsarrat Matinee" this morning, when among twenty Japanese, brought before the police tribunal were found a delegation of those who on a number of previous occasions faced a charge of gambling, and in many instances received heavy fines.
The score of Japanese who are alleged by the police to have been found at a place where gambling was being carried on, were represented in court by Attorney Rawlins. A plea of not guilty was entered, and Rawlins asked for a continuance until Friday morning.

Chief of Detectives McDuffie has gone into the past records of the men placed under arrest last night and declares that in some instances the same men drew fines ranging from one hundred to twenty dollars following upon previous convictions.

Nine Hawaiians, also alleged by the officers to have been present at a gambling game, received a fine of five dollars and costs each, with the exception of one youth, who was sent to the Asch Hotel for ten days at the request of his parents. The claim was made that the youngster had heretofore proved an incorrigible, consequently the authorities were asked to step in and take a hand in the management of the lad.

Prosecuting Attorney Brown employed his most fluent Parisian French in an endeavor to draw from one defendant the important admission that he has been exceedingly drunk. The Frenchman was finally induced to change his residence from the Sailor's Home to Asch hostelry for the next few days until outraged justice is satisfied.

A Russian, through the clever and efficient translation of Officer Fred Weed, acknowledged that he had imbibed unduly last night, and was given a chance to assist the city and county in the care of its public parks.

"Frye was stewed," so charged Chief of Detectives McDuffie in entering complaint against one defendant who faced court, plead guilty to being drunk and was sent on his way rejoicing. Owing to his declaration

FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES MAY HAVE CAUSED VIDA'S RASH ACT

To financial difficulties is laid, by several, the rash act of William Cornell Vida, who, firing a shot from a revolver which entered his mouth and lodged in the brain, now lies dead at the city and county morgue.

Vida for a number of months past has been employed on a Maui plantation in the capacity of luna. The young man returned to Honolulu a week ago, and took up a temporary residence at the Majestic.

Shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning, dwellers at the hotel heard a report of a pistol. Investigation disclosed Vida within a bathroom, the door locked, and the man partly reclining on a chair, apparently unconscious.

Upon entering the room, the young man was found to have died instantly from the self-inflicted wound.

The aged mother of the young man resides in this city and is well nigh stricken with grief over the sad affair. Vida was about thirty years of age, and was an island boy, born at Kahala, on Hawaii.

Some years ago, under the administration of High Sheriff A. M. Brown, Vida was a member of the Honolulu police department. He served for some time as a mounted patrolman.
Later he engaged as a local hackman.
So far as is known, Vida figured in several unsuccessful matrimonial ventures, one wife having left him a number of years ago and committed suicide at the old Arlington hotel.

The deceased leaves several brothers, including Henry, Daniel and Frank, the latter being a successful bond and share broker at Shanghai, China.

It was stated this morning that Vida had been a backer of one of the defeated rowing teams at the Regatta Day meet, to the extent of a considerable sum. No verification of this statement was produced in the course of the taking of testimony at the inquest conducted yesterday by Coroner Charles Rose.

THE PAHOA PUMPING STATION ENLARGEMENT

The von Hamm-Young Company expects the additional pump for the Pa-hoa station, supplying the Waikiki, Diamond Head and Kaimuki sections, to arrive about the end of November.
This will be one of two electricallydriven pumps at that station, which will double the capacity of the works.
The duty of the present steam-driven pump being 3,000,000 gallons a day.

Two new 12-inch wells will be bored at Paoha by McCandless Brothers as soon as they have completed their contract for the two wells they are now driving near Wilder avenue.

An extensive addition to the water mains in the sections mentioned has been made this summer, including a 12-inch pipe across the head of Kapiolani Park and past Sam Parker's place.

neva, New York.
